Winner—B. f. by Appomattox—Montvale (trained by A. Terry).

Went to post at 3:10. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Fannie Knox liked the mud, showed the most speed throughout and won easily. Katie Gibbons was in her own going and ran to her best form. Aline S. showed improved form in the going. Jean Gravier was badly ridden and taken the long way. Aransas was off badly and weakly ridden, but closed up very fast in the stretch. Helen Hay showed improvement. Edna Kenner was off badly, made up a lot of ground and went to the leaders in the stretch, then tired from her efforts.

Scratched—39161 Cellulose, 107.

Overweights—Katie Gibbons, 3 pounds.

Fannie Knox, show, 7 to 5. Katie Gibbons, show, 8 to 5. Aline S., show, 2 to 1. Jean Gravier, show, evens.

Winner—Ch. g. by Prince of Darkness—Magnolia (trained by D. L. Snow).

Went to post at 3:45. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Burke Cochran finished going fast, sneaked in between Dr. Kier and Deutschland and, catching Troxler napping on Dr. Kier, won out by the narrowest of margins. Dr. Kier seemed to have the race well in hand when Troxler eased him up. Deutschland raced under restraint for six furlongs, but was taken in deep going and suffered from bumping with Dr. Kier at the head of the stretch, but tired and did not run his race. Pettitjohn got off badly. Bas d'Or floundered in the going.

Overweights—Dr. Kier, 5 pounds.

Burke Cochran, show, 6 to 1. Dr. Kier, show, 7 to 10. Deutschland, show, 1 to 4.

Winner—Ch. c. by Counter Tenor—Onlight (trained by L. Johnson).

Went to post at 4:13. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Light Opera released the soft track and his light impost, was rated in behind the pacemaker to the stretch and then came away quickly. Lady Strathmore ran a good race and improved rather unexpectedly. Sheehan allowed South Breeze to fall too far out of it early and she never got up again. Jack Young seemed to flounder in the mud and was given an easy race. W. B. Gates quit badly.

Overweights—W. B. Gates, 2 pounds.

Winner—Br. c. by Tristan—Ellerdie (trained by A. C. McCafferty).

Went to post at 2:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Right and True followed the pacemaker closely for three furlongs, then ran into the lead, which he increased when straightened for home, but was unexpectedly driven out right at the end. Irish Jewel, in close quarters directly after the start, appeared unable to hold his position in the first quarter and came into the stretch wide, but was making up the lost ground very fast in the final furlong. Neither One, suddenly improved, went up to the winner on the far turn and held on unusually well in the last quarter. Armeath was always outrun and in the final drive to the wire he only held his position. Benmora showed considerable early speed and was probably short. Blue and Orange got away poorly. Margra-viate was palpably unfit and pulled up very sore.

Scratched—38806 Schoharie, 105; 38520 Ran After, 103; 36086 Semper Vivax, 100.

Corrected weights—Irish Jewel, 106.

Right and True, show, 3 to 5. Irish Jewel, show, 7 to 5. Neither One, show, 5 to 1. Armeath, show, out.

Winner—B. c. by Golden Garter—Miss Maxim (trained by E. L. Graves).

Went to post at 2:55. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Golden Maxim has trained into a crack three-year-old. He took the track at the start and led throughout. The field closed up on him at the end of seven furlongs, but only on sufferance, as he came away decisively when straightened for the wire. Carbuncle, on the inside, moved up fast on the turn and into the stretch and finished out gamely under McCue's vigorous ride. River Pirate was going so fast on the stretch turn that he ran up to the winner and had to pull up. He appeared like coming on in earnest when fairly settled for home, but Hicks allowed him to swerve and throw away second money. Torchlight, compelled to go wide on the last turn, finished going fast. Bon Mot went a good seven furlongs and failed to stay. Circus made up a lot of ground in the last three furlongs. Surmise ran a bad race. Homestead quit at the end of seven furlongs.

Scratched—39147 Pentecost, 126; 39205 City Bank, 107; 38584 Ethics, 108; 38979 Numeral, 107; 39100 Justice, 108; 39205 The Carmelite, 100; 38876 Interval, 100; 38759 Rightful, 110.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Acceptances for the valuable Club Members Handicap, given by the St. Louis Fair Association, are due today and owners who fail to mail their acceptances by midnight of tonight will find their horses declared out.

Goodman, Chicago. As the case is stated by you, i. e., that Irish Lad and Gunfire were to be considered the Whitney entry, A wins. As a matter of fact, however, the two horses did not constitute an entry in the ordinary meaning and are in different ownerships.

Flanigan, Chicago. As an added starter Jack Rattlin only counted to the extent that he affected the odds and wagers on Hilee place won at about 2 to 5.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

The Flight Stakes, which is carded for decision today, brings together the cream of the sprinting division of the middle west and should result in one of the best races witnessed at Hawthorne. In the original entries fifteen are carded to start, but of this number four are looked upon as certain absentees. The horses which will probably not line up to the barrier are St. Minor, Nellie Waddell, Burnie Bunton and Scorpio. The overnight betting gave Beau Ormonde and the Durnell & Herz entry the post of honor at 3 to 1, next in order came Skilful 4 to 1, Drake entry 4 to 1, Organdie 10 to 1, Wainamoinen 15 to 1, Gregor K. 20 to 1, and Ahola and First Chip as the extreme outsiders with 50 to 1 against their chances.

Safeguard was bid up $300 over his entered price of $500 by "Kansas" Price and bid in by his owner with an advance of $5.

J. A. Drake's American Derby candidate Savable, which is carded to start in the Flight Stakes today, is reported to have worked after the closing race on Thursday six furlongs in 1:19.

Owner Fred Cook bet J. O'Leary $200 yesterday on his horse Linguist to win the Harlem National Handicap, receiving odds of 30 to 1. After the bet was recorded O'Leary cut the price down to 15 to 1.

Jockey Robbins, who rode Lampoon, the winner of the fifth race yesterday, came near to throwing the race away. He eased his mount up through the last sixteenth and failing to notice El Ghor coming with a rush came near to being beaten out and only the fact that the finishing line was close by saved the backers of Lampoon. After the jockey had weighed in Judge Bryan gave him a lecture that will long be remembered by the deminutive rider.

Several owners who were in the paddock yesterday gave it as their opinion that the track was fully five seconds slower in the middle than next to the inner rail.

Winner—B. g, by Oddfellow—Miss Jackson (trained by P. West).
Went to post at 2:36. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily.
D. L. Moore was the best ridden. Reed hustled him along all the way and opened up a winning lead while rounding the far turn, but the horse was tiring at the end and just managed to last long enough to stall off Moyle. Bonner took the latter back in the first half, then came on very fast and would have won in another stride. Kentucky Muddle finished well and was easily the best of the others.

Scratched—39126 Rosy M., 99.

Went to post at 3:09. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second handily.
Ocyrohe, after getting off badly, came with a rush at the end and got up in the last few strides. Henry Luehrmann Jr. showed surprising improvement, but tired when it came to a drive. Dr. Cartledge had no mishaps, was off with the leaders and showed early speed, but tired and quit. Two Penny ran well to the stretch, but quit in the last quarter. Blazius was sore when going to the post and has bucked shins. This is a good-looking colt. Jim Ferrin swerved all over the track in the stretch run.

Avoid was well ridden. Gilmore saved ground with her at all turns and she came through on the inside at the homestretch and finished going fast. Olefant was taken back by Kelly a couple of times, but came very fast at the end and would have won in a few more strides. Bardolph was much used in the first half in chasing Bensonhurst and came very wide at the turn into the homestretch and carried Khaki out with him. Bensonhurst quit badly.

Ninos came very fast in the stretch run, caught Governor Boyd tiring and got up in the last stride. Governor Boyd was well ridden and had no mishaps. Phosphorus showed early speed, but tired when it came to the final drive. Mike Rice was bumped into at the sixth jump. Craven quit badly. His Lordship is a bad fencer. Islip pulled up lame.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same.
Sol Smith, off flying, showed keen speed throughout and easily stood off Ida Davis' bid in the last eighth. The latter made a determined effort to close up on the winner in the final eighth, but without avail. She was much the best of the others at that. Soldier of Fortune failed to come with his usual rush at the end. He ran to his best form and is a consistent colt. Glisten hung palpably when called on in the final furlong. She has probably had a little too much of it lately. Bernice ran well for three furlongs. The others were never serious contenders.

Safeguard took kindly to the dried-out going and, assuming an easy lead after the first half had been run, won much as his rider pleased. Mary Moore came with a rush at the end after making up much ground in the last quarter. Jet tired fast in the last eighth after showing early speed. Sharpless showed some early speed. Winner—B. c. by Henry of Navarre—Invermay (trained by A. L. Aste).

Went to post at 3:45. At post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second handily. Plater was well favored by the start, forced the pace throughout and, after a long and terrific drive of fully three furlongs, outstayed The Musketeer, displaying unexpected gameness at the end when plied with the whip. The Musketeer failed to get away in his stride and the effort to join issue with the winner took a lot out of him. He ran a high-class race and forced Plater along a furlong in ten and three-fifths seconds on the turn. He was also under the additional disadvantage of being on the outside. Operator, a good horse right now, finished very fast and was rapidly overhauling the leaders. Toscan closed a big gap in the last half. Demurrer retired early. Tribes Hill and Foxy Kane were both running on at the end.

Winner—B. c. by Loyalist—Duchess (trained by F. Brown).

Went to post at 4:15. At post 3 minutes. Start straggling. Won handily; second easily. Seymour looks and ran like a good colt, obtained a good lead at the start and made the most of his advantage, stalling off a strong challenge from Collector Jessup when a furlong out and was coming away fast at the end. Collector Jessup failed to get away on even terms and in working into a contending position was seriously interfered with, but when moving up fast and nearly lapped on the winner the latter bore out and Collector Jessup fell back several lengths, finally coming on the outside and all but passed Seymour in the stretch. Tim Payne ran a remarkably good race and was a sharp contender to the stretch after interfering with the favorite on the turn. Monet finished a good fourth easing up and must be of some account. Cascine will show to better advantage in longer races. Masedo was crossed by the winner at the half and nearly thrown, destroying any chances of his winning.

Scratched—(39145)Golden Drop, 109; 39145 Pirouette, 104; 39145*Destiny, 104.

Seymour, show, 2 to 5. Tim Payne, show, 2nd to 1.

39327 SIXTH RACE—About 3-4 Mile. $900 added, 3-year-olds. Maidens. Allowances.

Winner—Blk. c. by Nomad—Rosalie (trained by F. Bulew).

Went to post at 4:45. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Damon was lucky and had clear sailing, finished out the last quarter gamely and was probably the best. Many Thanks made the running and always appeared to be the winner, tiring in the last few strides. Tristesse, in between the first two, was crowded out in the last fifty yards when they closed in on her and she was going faster than either at the end. Leipsic should improve and was buffeted about considerably in the last quarter. Mennenfield ran a good race after being crowded on the stretch turn. Wyefield, away badly, closed a tremendous gap and finished like a streak. Guy Park was also running past horses in the stretch. Calcutta is highly tried, ran green and had no chance at the start.

Scratched—39234 King Carter, 112; 38086 Semper Vivax, 109; Matchless, 112.

Damon, show, 7 to 5. Many Thanks, show, 6 to 5. Tristesse, show, 2 to 1. Calcutta, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. g. by Inverness—Flirt (trained by F. H. Milden).

Went to post at 5:10. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Roue, an improved horse, went to the front quickly when straightened out for home and gamely stalled off Highlander's rush at the end. The latter worked through a rough journey to the stretch, where he finished going fast. Courtmaid was rough back early in the race and came fast at the end from a long way back. Rostand, a slow beginner in a big field, was repeatedly interfered with. Tioga was nearly left and made up ground throughout. Julia Junkin is a fast one evidently and may have been short. Sadducee ran a poor race.

Scratched—39168 Burning Glass, 97; Silverdell, 92.

Corrected weights—Highlander, 116; Julia Junkin, 96.

Overweights—Rostand, 3 pounds; Julia Junkin, 2.

Roue, show, 2nd to 1. Highlander, show, 1 to 2. Courtmaid, show, 3 to 5. Tim D. Jr., show, 7 to 10.

Winner—B. g. by Magian—Annona (trained by R. F. Meyers).

Went to post at 2:33. At post 10 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Tax Man caught the leaders tiring in the stretch run home and outgamed them in the final drive. This race shows him to be right on edge. Fitzbrillar ran right to his form, but was tiring perceptibly and had all he could do to save second place. Sly Boots would have been second in another stride. Andrattus ran his best race. Silk and Satin showed early speed.

Scratched—39254 Lorne, 102; 39279 Night Owl, 100; 39187 Retire, 95; 39218 Gipsano, 95.

Overweights—Red Seal, 5 pounds.
